

The University of Memphis
Provides EQUAL OPPORTUNITY
in all Programs Receiving Federal Financial Assistance
Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 is the Federal law that protects individuals from discrimination on the basis of their race, color, or national origin in programs that receive Federal financial assistance.
- Facilities, programs, and services sponsored by the University of Memphis are available to all eligible persons regardless of race, color, national origin, age, sex or disability.
- “Simple justice requires that public funds to which all taxpayers of all races contribute not be spent in any fashion which encourage, entrenches, subsidizes or results in racial discrimination.” President John F. Kennedy, 1963

If you feel that you have been discriminated against in any University of Memphis sponsored programs, the Title VI Coordinator for your campus is: Michelle R. Banks, 156 Administration Building, (901) 678-2713.
